

What a day.. Started off upwards of 20 knots and just enough North that made Vineyard Haven Yacht club bumpy. Wind got lighter all day and backed to the West and so the sailors got to compete in a variety of conditions. No protests and other than a few rudders missing in the morning and an elvstrom bailer going straight threw the hull, a great day of sailing. Congratulations to North Kingstown I hope you make it to Great Oaks and many thanks to all who made the trip to MV. My thanks to Brent Jansen and Cape Cod Academy for the use of their powerboats which . facilitated the rotations.

Arnold Brown would have loved the day of sailing, be proud of the sailors and the competition.
